

Counter-terrorism: An Exchange of Ideas and Practices Between China and the EU

Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna, Pisa

2 March 2017

Registration 9:30- 10:00

Welcome Remarks 10:00-10.30

Prof. Andrea de Guttry (Director of the DIRPOLIS Institute, Sant'Anna, Pisa)

Prof. Tullio Padovani (Scuola Sant'Anna, Pisa)

Keynote Speech (11.00-12.30)

Roberta Bonazzi (European Foundation for Democracy),

Radicalisation in Europe: Addressing a Complex Phenomenon as part of the fight against terrorism

Discussants

Gaetana Morgante (Scuola Sant'Anna, Pisa)

Tommaso Virgili (Scuola Sant'Anna, Pisa)

Lunch Break (13.30-14.30)

I Panel Counter-terrorism measures in the EU (14.30-16.30)

Francesca Capone (Scuola Sant'Anna, Pisa)

Discussing the EU Reaction to the Growing Risk of Terrorist Attacks

Giuseppe Martinico (Scuola Sant'Anna, Pisa. Co-Editor of the STALS Program)

Courts and Counter- Terrorism. The Aftermath of the Kadi Saga

Discussant: Leonardo Pierdominici (European University Institute and University of Bologna)

Coffee Break (16.30-17.00)

II Panel Counter-terrorism measures in China (17:00- 18.30)

Li Bangyou (Central University of Finance and Economic)

The Role of Chinese Courts in Anti- Terrorism Cases

Liu Shuang (Director of the European Law Research Center, Henan University, Kaifeng)

The reform of anti-terrorism in Chinese criminal law

Chen Zhonglin (Chongqing University)

The Root of Terrorism in Contemporary China and the Counter-terrorism Measures

Discussant: Alberto di Martino (Scuola Sant'Anna, Pisa)

Final Remarks